Seven Counties
One Gospel
Our Opportunity

The song Christ Be Magnified by Cody Carnes speaks to me about this year's Spectacular. "Oh! Christ be magnified in me," was seen through the service offered to God by brothers and sisters in Christ.

Our unity could be heard echoing throughout the Expo Center to "every human heart" of His peace. The Spirit's touch was felt everywhere; the stage, multiple acts of kindness, graciousness of those who served, seeds planted through gospel conversations, and summer missionaries as they shared the gospel through the Wordless Book.

Best of all, 31 more members of His family are now singing "Oh! Christ be magnified, From the alter of my life."

*We served together "in one enraptured hymn of praise...
Christ be lifted high." **

“Teach your children . . . when you walk by the way”
Deut 6:7. Yes, wherever you are. Recent research indicates that a child’s future behavior is affected by the community they grow up in.

Perhaps you are teaching others as you live your life by the way. That means, we have a wider responsibility and opportunity to affect change outside of our family and children. While it feels safe and wise to protect our families, we are called to “make disciples of all.”
Matthew 28:19a

Where does all stop? Does it stop at the school? NO! It does not even legally stop there. A Supreme Court decision in 2001 allows us to hold Bible clubs in public schools that teach children from a biblical basis.

The age from 4-14 is the formative age window in which over 70% of church members make a decision to follow Christ. Let us not succumb to sitting on the sidelines. This is would be a fatal decision for our children and others too.

We have schools, recreation centers, and Boys & Girls Clubs that recognize the importance of sharing the gospel to the next generation, but there is no one to stand in the gap. Are you ready to make a difference? Please share this need with others in your church, pray or give. More importantly, there's a child that needs you. Will you volunteer to help reach all?
